MISSOULA--

Food from 11 nations and a variety of entertainment will be included in the University of Montana's 1976 International Buffet on Friday, April 23.

The buffet, which will be at 6 p.m. in the University Center Gold Oak Room, is open to all interested persons.

University students from a number of countries will present music, dances and a costume parade at Friday's buffet.

Cost of the entire program, including food and entertainment, will be $3 per person. Tickets are available at Stoverud's Jewelers; Missoula Mercantile Record Shop; University Center Information Desk, and the UM Center for Student Development, room 148 of the University Lodge.

The UM International Association is sponsoring Friday's buffet.

Nations represented by the various dishes served Friday will include India, Polynesia, Japan, the Phillippines, Russia, Italy and Germany. Tossed green salad from Hawaii and a variety of beverages, breads, fruit compote and tarts also will be served.

Entertainment on Friday's program includes bamboo pole dances; American folk music and a belly dance; folk music from Laos and Ghana, and Swedish songs.

William Anku of Ho Ghana, West Africa, who is a graduate student in music at the University, is coordinator of the program. Mrs. Margaret McGuire, foreign student adviser at UM, has assisted in making preparations for UM's 1976 International Buffet.
